

BlazeNEU Privacy Policy

Written by: Jack Cardin

BlazeNEU wants users to not only be prepared for their interviews but for how their data will be used as well.

BlazeNEU recognizes that Marijuana has not been legalized countrywide or globally, and encourages users not to discuss or glorify their usage of marijuana (or any other illegal substances') when posting or discussing experiences relating to companies on BlazeNEU's website.

BlazeNEU's sole purpose is to create a safe space for students to inquire about company drug testing while respecting student privacy.

Information and Data we intend to collect from logged in users (we do not intend to collect data from users who are not logged in):

1. Usernames and Emails associated with your BlazeNEU account
2. Companies and Entries you've viewed when signed in on your BlazeNEU account
3. Companies and Entries made by your BlazeNEU account
 - Company name and location
 - Entry information: Co-op cycle, Drug testing information, and additional notes
 - Note: BlazeNEU agrees to not collect from any individual user data relating to the creation of any entry or company in order to maintain a certain level of anonymity when posting.

BlazeNEU maintains the right to collect data regarding Username, Emails, and Companies to be able to enhance your user experience. This enhancement may be through the later addition of targeted advertising based on the locations of companies you've viewed from your account, or through notifications via email which you will be able to choose to opt-out of.

BlazeNEU also maintains the right to collect data regarding Entries posted by the collective of BlazeNEU users which we maintain the right to sell to third-parties

- Note: for personal privacy, we will not include your personal information be it through username or emails associated with these entries. BlazeNEU will include all other current entry data posted by users: Co-op cycle, Drug testing information, and additional notes

Thank you for reading this policy, and blaze on!

- The BlazeNEU team
